SAMUEL GOODWIN

MAN DID NOT START THE WAR BETWEEN GOOD AND EVIL. BUT HE WAS THE CAUSE.

FOLLOWING HIS CREATION OF MAN,
GOD SELECTED A NUMBER OF HIS MOST PRECIOUS ANGELS TO KEEP VIGIL OVER THE EARTH.

THEY WERE KNOWN AS THE WATCHERS.
HIS MOST ELITE WARRIORS, THE GREATEST FIGHTERS HEAVEN AND EARTH HAD EVER SEEN.

BUT SOME WATCHERS GREW JEALOUS OF GOD'S REPEATED FORGIVENESS OF MAN'S SINS.

GRRRR

SGRRRAA

Semyaza!

Semyaza!

LED BY THE ONE NAMED SEMYAZA, THE ENVIOUS ANGELS REBELLED AGAINST GOD.

BUT THE ANGELS FAITHFUL TO GOD DEFEATED SEMYAZA, AND THOSE THAT REFUSED OBEDIENCE.

GOD COMMANDED THE FALLEN ANGELS TO BE CAST OUT OF HEAVEN.

SEMYAZA, WAS BOUND AND IMPRISONED NOT TO BE FREED UNTIL THE DAY OF JUDGEMENT.

DEMONS THAT SURVIVED THE BLOODY BATTLE WERE BANISHED TO HELL...

HOWEVER, THIRTEEN OF THE DEMONS ESCAPED CAPTURE, AND FLED TO EARTH.

TAKING WITH THEM A SECTION OF THE BLOODSTAINED CHAIN THAT BOUND THEIR LEADER.

BUT, THEIR REBELLION HAD NOT COME UNEXPECTED... LONG BEFORE THE GREAT WAR FOR HEAVEN, A SEER ANGEL HAD PROPHESIED THE FALLEN LEADER'S BETRAYAL... AND HIS DOWNFALL...

IT WAS ALSO FORETOLD, THAT ONE DAY A MAN WOULD COME- A FIRST-BORN OF TRUE-BLOOD PARENTS- WHO WOULD HOLD THE CHAIN THAT ONCE BOUND THE LEADER OF THE FALLEN AND ALLOW EVIL TO BE REBORN

...AS THEY SEARCHED FOR THE FIRST-BORN THAT HAD BEEN PROPHESIED TO TIP THE WAR IN THEIR FAVOR...

IT IS WRITTEN THAT WHEN IT HAPPENS THE FALLEN WILL WAGE WAR ON THE THRONE OF GOD ONCE MORE...

AND WILL USE GOD'S GREATEST CREATION, MAN, AGAINST HIM.

KNOWING THE PROPHECY, THE FALLEN HOP THE CHAIN BY MELTING IT INTO 13 COINS.

ONE COIN FOR EACH OF THE FALLEN LEADERS ON EARTH.

EACH COIN CURSED BY THE BLOOD OF SEMRAZA, THAT HAS TORTURED MAN THROUGHOUT THE CENTURIES...

THE IMPACT OF THE 13 COINS HAS ECHOED THROUGHOUT TIME, WITH UNCONTROLLABLE ATROCITIES AND HORRORS IN THEIR WAKE.

THE FALLEN WATCHED MAN CRUMBLE WITH WIDESPREAD FAMINE, GREED AND VIOLENCE...

I DON'T KNOW IF I'M GOING CRAZY AND CAN'T SLEEP, OR IF I CAN'T SLEEP, SO I'M GOING CRAZY.

AHH, FUCK.

THE FALLEN

In a time long before recorded history, warrior angels called Watchers walked the earth, protecting all God's creations. They possessed strength, speed and abilities far beyond our mortal limitations. There was one rule the Watchers were to obey; they were forbidden the favors of mortal women. But the beauty of women was more than some of the Watchers could resist.

Angered by God's severe punishment of the Watchers who bred with mortal women, some angels rebelled. They were defeated, and their leader Semyaza was bound in wrist-thick chains and hidden in a secret prison on Earth known only as Dudael. Rebel angels not killed during the war were cast into Hell. However, thirteen rebel angels escaped and took with them a section of the chain that bound Semyaza- cut in their desperate attempt to free their leader.

Filled with hate, the thirteen bred with women and animals to create an army of evil. Every monster imagined is based on the hate-filled offspring of those vengeful angels. Over time the descendants of those fallen angels looked more and more human, until they were able to walk among man unnoticed. Some of their descendants today are not aware of the bloodline they carry. But others stayed faithful to the thirteen demons of their ancestry and keep alive the plan to renew the war for Heaven. These descendants call themselves The Fallen and have one ultimate goal- to find the hidden prison Dudael and free their leader Semyaza to lead them in a new attack on Heaven.

THE FALLEN.

Sacred writings teach that God commanded one faithful Watcher (Warrior Angel) to father a child with a human woman. That child was Noah. Noah's sons were then given the duty of protecting man from the descendants of The Fallen and retrieving the chain of Semyaza that had been forged into 13 Coins.

Noah's sons branched out in every direction, passing down the fantastic abilities of the Watcher in their bloodline. Descendants of Noah spread to every corner of the world assuring every religion, every culture, every nation has a common thread: the belief in angels and demons- good and bad spirits. That belief is shared by all people, differing only by the customs and cultures of the tribes in that region.

of the descendants married only those whose bloodline on both sides went back to Noah's sons. They are called True-bloods, and their fighting abilities are second only to the Watchers themselves.

There are people today who are not aware of their ancestry. They do not know the blood of a Watcher is in them. They are not aware of the Nephilim gene they inherited. They only know that their physical and athletic gifts make them legendary in battle or in sports. The Council searches for those who have the gene but are not yet aware. Once made aware, a person must choose a path. The Fallen persuade with wealth, sex and fame. The SON promise only one thing- the chance to unleash the full potential of the Watcher within you.

MONEY IS THE ROOT OF ALL EVIL

When they saw their rebellion failing, thirteen desperate angels tried to rescue their leader, but were beat back by Watchers who bound their leader Semyaza in wrist-thick chain. The demons managed to hack off a section of the chain and fled to earth clinging to their sacred souvenir of the war, which was heavily stained, with the evil blood of Semyaza.

On Earth, the thirteen demons called themselves The Fallen and their twisted descendants became their evil army. God sent a Watcher to create The Sons Of Noah (SON) to fight The Fallen and also to retrieve that piece of chain because the evil blood that contaminated it, could infect the world. To hide the chain, the thirteen demons melted the links down and formed them into 13 Coins of Deception. Those coins have caused most of the horrid transgressions man has committed. Murders, massacres, genocide, world-wars were the result of men touching the coins and being influenced by the persuasions of the thirteen.

Angelic prophecy has warned the SON that the only way Semyaza can be freed is for a First-born of True-blood parents to touch the coins. The location of Dudael -the prison holding Semyaza- will be instantly revealed to the First-born who touches the coins. And that First-born will tip the balance of power for Heaven in the Fallen's favor. For that reason all First-borns are put to death at birth.

SAMUEL GOODWIN

SAMUEL GOODWIN

(45yrs old) The illegitimate child of a True-blood, Samuel was raised by his father and stepmother (also a True-blood). Samuel's real mother couldn't handle the life of The SON. She was only human. Samuel loved her, but stayed away from her else The Fallen might use her against him.

Samuel's father was hard on him. That is the life of one born into The SON. Weapons are held from birth so the hands and arms are strong. Samuel's stepmother was just as hard on him as his father. They sparred mercilessly. She broke his ribs, left arm and right cheekbone. Each time she took him to a healer, kissed his forehead and told him how well he had done. Samuel knew not to expect an apology. She taught him how to fight through pain. She was a good True-blood parent. He loved her for it.

Samuel would have had an older sister- if The SON allowed First-borns to live. Samuel often saw his stepmother linger over girl's baby clothes at stores. The pain in her heart broke his.

Samuel's half-brother was the reason Samuel became a legend among The SON. Samuel's half-brother was a true-blood. His strength, speed and athleticism were exceptional. Samuel had to work twice as hard just to be half as good. Samuel became one of the best battle strategists among The SON, and the youngest ever to be made team leader. Perhaps too young. Samuel witnessed atrocities by The Fallen and became obsessed with one goal: destroy The Fallen. To Samuel, there is no right or wrong when it comes to defeating The Fallen. There is only success or death.

Samuel committed the same error his father had made and fell in love with a normal human. Got her pregnant. The child was taken from its mother and raised by Samuel and The SON to protect its mother. The child, a girl- LiYun, grew to become one of his best fighters and source of pride- as is his adopted daughter Helena. Samuel raised them both as he was raised- hard. He loved them too much to do anything else.

Samuel kills The Fallen every chance he gets. He shows no mercy. The Fallen fear him, but The SON will fear him more when he reveals his dangerous plan to draw the coins from hiding- and risk Heaven and Earth.

A child of the American Foster Home system, John never knew his parents. When he was old enough to understand, John was told his parents were killed in a car accident, and since no relatives came forth to claim him, John became a ward of the state. He bounced from foster home to foster home, never living in the same home for more than two years.

John's athleticism was evident at a very young age. Walking at 5 months, running at 10 months, he was simply amazing. At 7 yrs old, John was better at baseball and soccer than most teenagers. By the time John was 10, people already had him pegged as the next basketball phenomenon. As a 13 yr-old freshman, he averaged 45 points per game. That's when the trouble started. Nightmares. Horrible, twisted nightmares. Every night.

Every time John closed his eyes, the nightmares returned. It seemed as if his own mind hated him. The only way John could sleep was to get high until he passed out. Drug use led to dumb actions with bad friends who got him involved in a liquor store robbery. The storeowner was killed. John was arrested with drugs in his pocket. In prison, the only thing he had was the odd shaped necklace a nurse once told him was taken from the car his mother had been killed in. John wore the necklace every day. It calmed him. Got him through prison.

Thanks to an inmate who happened to be into kung fu, meditating and all that other bullshit, John learned to focus his thoughts, push the nightmares aside, calm his heart, and sleep. Two years in prison ended his dream of playing professional basketball, but saved his life.

When John got out, he found two things: a job at Henry's slaughterhouse, and a woman who loved him- Brandi. The slaughterhouse was perfect for John. It was hard work with heavy lifting that kept his mind and body focused. At the slaughterhouse, John discovered his natural affinity for knives.

Brandi was everything John wanted. Everything he needed. She strengthened him. Gave him purpose. For just over a year, Brandi and John shared life, love,

I DON'T KNOW IF I'M GOING CRAZY & CAN'T SLEEP OR IF I CAN'T SLEEP SO I'M GOING CRAZY.

JOHN POZNER

and an apartment. But just as things were going well, the nightmares returned with a vengeance. Brandi helped John through it. Kept him away from alcohol and drugs. John started playing pick-up basketball at the park again. The park bleachers would fill just to watch him. Young men would come to test his game. John dunked on all of them. The competition on the basketball court allowed him to release fierce, freakish athleticism that only calmed at Brandi's touch when it was time to go home.

John noticed the tall man in the long coat who sometimes came to the court to watch him play. John didn't know the guy. Figured he was a fan of basketball. Samuel didn't give a shit about basketball, but he cared a lot for John. Samuel knew a secret John would soon learn. There is one first-born true-blood alive on Earth. John. If the Fallen ever found out about John, they'd unleash Hell to get him.

35, but looks younger. Says exactly what's on her mind. When you've killed as many of The Fallen as Gwen has, you tend to have a zero tolerance for bullshit. Gwen has been fighting for so long, she had become cold-hearted, with a soul as hard as her motorcycle helmet. But that's the life Gwen accepted when she and her brother joined The SON.

Gwen and her brother David were "made aware" (told of their Nephilim heritage) in their early teens by a coach at the private military school Gwen and David attended. He explained why their mother put them up for adoption when they were babies. David was 3yrs old, Gwen 1: their parent's strike team had killed a high-ranking government official who was really a Fallen pawn. Their parents hid them in "normal" homes because The Fallen show no mercy to children of The SON.

At their school, Gwen and David excelled at anything related to combat and athletics. Sports came too easy and therefore was of little interest to either of them. But everything martial intrigued them. Weapons, fighting, unarmed combat, battle strategy... It all came so naturally to them. Coach explained why when he told them about their heritage as descendants of Watchers.

GWEN WILLIAMS

Somedamnwhere in Tibet, they trained for two years to undergo the Revealing. It was during the Revealing that the angel showed them their mother and how she died at the hands of a Fallen demon. When she awoke from the Revealing, Gwen had the ability to hear things that happened in recent past. This talent allows her to always know the truth. She's a living lie detector.

Most of the SON are good with guns. Gwen is uncanny. A freak among freaks with the weapons. She aims with her mind more than by eyesight. Gwen can hit targets when she is running- even while driving her motorcycle at full speed. Before she joined Samuel's team, Gwen was a Hunter: SON assassin. She preferred working alone, living by herself because she always knew the truth about others. She hardened her heart even more to protect it from being broken. Then she met a soul more tortured than herself. She met Samuel.

LA RUE

(30 yrs old) Samuel's lieutenant. LaRue was a legend as an amateur boxer. Undefeated. Never going more than two rounds in over twenty fights. He turned down a chance to fight in the Olympics to turn pro. Won his first two professional fights by knockout in less than 30 seconds. Then he disappeared.

LaRue is the only member of Samuel's team who is Muslim. LaRue never knew his father (from whom he inherited the Nephilim gene). His mother was a nurse who converted to Islam when LaRue was an infant- after her church kicked her out because she was an unwed mother. Islam's structure and discipline served LaRue well.

LaRue was walking home alone from his second pro fight when he was approached by a beautiful woman who introduced herself as Rachel Hayes. Rachel told LaRue she could make him world champion. LaRue told her that he didn't need her to be champion. Two men stepped from the shadows and advised LaRue to rethink the lady's offer. LaRue advised the men to kiss his ass. The next three seconds was the first fight LaRue had ever lost in his life. Never had LaRue been hit so hard, so fast. LaRue was sure they were going to kill him then and there.

A guy in a long coat came out of nowhere and dropped both the shadow men in seconds. Rachel had vanished, but from distant shadows she told LaRue's hero, "Keep that one. There are more fish in the sea." The man in the long coat was Samuel. He helped LaRue to his feet and took him home. Samuel told LaRue some craziness about LaRue being descended from something called Nephilim. As absurd as it sounded, LaRue knew it was true.

Boxing would have made LaRue rich, but LaRue believed Allah had more planned for him than wealth. Samuel told LaRue that by joining The SON, he would become a guardian of the world. Finally, LaRue found what he had been searching for- purpose.

13 COINS

RACHEL

125 yrs ago, Rachel was a beautiful woman. Now, she looks even better. Rachel looks 27. She can excite any man with a look. Bring most to orgasm just by licking her lips. Male or female, if she catches you looking at her breasts, she knows she's got you.

Rachel was born into a very affluent family—one of the Five Families of The Fallen. The Five Families is an ancient sect, centuries old. Five of the sons of Fallen angels devised their own plan to rule the world. “Why wait for Semyaza’s return?” they said. The five agreed to keep their demon-side secret, and used every evil they could to become rich and powerful. Over time their evil influence spread all over the world. These families are better known today as The Illuminati.

The patriarchs of the Five Families did not care about keeping their bloodline pure. It was more important to them that their evil be inherited by their offspring. That inheritance is tested at an early age. Any child who failed to kill the mortal they were given was immediately beheaded. Rachel was five years old the first time she killed someone. She did it with no hesitation. Her father was so proud.

Spoiled from the moment she was conceived, Rachel never wanted for anything. Nor was she ever disciplined for any wrongdoing in her life. As is most of the Five Families, Rachel is exceptionally smart. Put those traits together, and the results are frightening: a brilliant, evil woman who believes she is entitled to anything she desires, and has no problems doing anything to fulfill her slightest whim. Rachel has never been married, but did have one child, which was fathered by a demon—as was she. Such is the way of the Five Families. Once each generation, a woman of the Five Families is impregnated by a demon. Immediately after birth, the infant is put to test. The child is handed to its father. If the infant cries at the sight of the monster, the demon eats the child. If the child does not cry, it is allowed to live. Rachel played with her father’s finger.

“TORTURE IS A VERY STRONG WORD, MR POZNER.

WE PREFER INTERROGATION”.

RACHEL

When Rachel was 20, her father took her to Hell. Told her to find her way out. It was another test. A test that 99 out of 100 children of demons, failed. Rachel was again exceptional. She wasn’t afraid to show that she was more evil than she was beautiful. She enjoyed showing her hideous side—something she could not do on Earth. She could spread her leathery wings and claw the eyes out of some hapless souls. Rachel enjoyed that. Even though Rachel was half human, she loathed humans. To her, they were soft, weak, and screamed at the slightest touch. To Rachel, humans didn’t deserve Earth. They definitely didn’t deserve to be on top of the food chain. “That’ll change when Semyaza returns,” she says with certainty in her voice.

Rachel has seen much during her lifetime. She has several college degrees. Speaks several languages. Has lived all over the world. But riches, which seemed to pacify the Five Families, bored Rachel. She wanted more. That is why she sought out The Fallen. Freeing Semyaza became her reason for existence. To Rachel, money meant comfort, but freeing Semyaza will mean absolute rule over the world. Rachel has and will use every bit of her charm, wit, influence, and evil to build the army of The Fallen to await Semyaza’s return. Because Rachel is so dedicated to the cause, Râmêel put her in the position of Director of the Anti-Terrorism Authority, which gives her access to hundreds of “agents” who are actually lower classed members of The Fallen. Every country has such a Fallen Army hidden in plain sight. Rachel is so revered, she heads the one in the US. Rachel is doing all she can to advance The Fallen plan of taking control of man’s governments and technologies so they can be turned against God and Heaven when Semyaza is freed 17, is Samuel's natural daughter. Half Chinese, LiYun is slim, but powerful with square shoulders and long dark hair. Beautiful. LiYun hated that she was forbidden from playing sports with normal kids her age. She was faster than any boy, stronger than most men (except one or two of the strongest men in the world, and she wasn't far from them). LiYun was jealous of athletes who were pampered and rich and cheered by millions, because she knew that could easily be her. But that is not the way of The SON. As daughter of the leader of a SON team, LiYun's life revolved around the unending war with The Fallen.

LIYUN GOODWIN 13 COINS

LiYun hated The Fallen. They were the reason her life sucked. The only person she hated more than The Fallen- was her father Samuel. To LiYun, it seemed Samuel chased everyone away. He chased away her mother and forbid them to ever see one another. Yes, LiYun understood that it was for her mother's safety. LiYun listened when Samuel explained that he knew what she was going through because he was forbidden from seeing his own mother who was also normal. But that just made LiYun angrier. She thought that was why Samuel should understand how she felt. But her pleas didn't matter. At first LiYun hated going behind Samuel's back and seeing her mother. But after awhile, the secret meetings became a welcome release from the The SON. The meetings were a secret shared only between mother and daughter. Not even LiYun's adopted sister Helena knew of the meetings. This was a secret between blood. LiYun was convinced Helena wouldn't understand.

High school was the few hours a day LiYun spent away from Samuel. Best of all, boys were there. Which brings up another thing LiYun hated about Samuel. He chased boys away with a single look. Thank God for the hide-away behind the high school gymnasium or LiYun might not have ever been kissed.

“WE MUST WIN,
OR HEAVEN AND EARTH WILL FALL”

LIYUN

As much as she was angry with Samuel, LiYun was exuberant with the weapon she had become. The swords, the fighting, the killing were exciting. That may sound twisted to some people, but those of The SON knew what she meant even if they refused to admit it. Being more than human, fearing no one was terrific for a girl's self-esteem.

13 COINS

Râmêêl roamed Heaven before Adam walked on earth. Like many of the angels who rebelled, Râmêêl was jealous of man's repeated forgiveness. Râmêêl is one of the original 13 fallen angels who fled to Earth and like all the fallen angels, blames man for his fall from grace. Râmêêl and the other 12 fallen angels created The Fallen to build an army to help them search for Dudael and their imprisoned leader Semyaza. Once they find the secret prison, Râmêêl and the others will release a being of anger and hate that has been buried since before Eve bit the apple.

'AMBITION, MAKES REAL MEN,
MEN OF POWER,
MEN OF STRENGTH'.

RÂMÊÊL

Râmêêl can assume many different human physical forms, but his favorite is that of a creepy old man, thin with small eyes, horribly wrinkled, pale (almost gray) with long fingers and a smile too wide for his head. Râmêêl knows the old man makes people uncomfortable and he enjoys that. But the ancient demon prefers not to have day-to-day interaction with the hairless apes, so he has others (like Rachel and her "agents") handle the bullshit. Every once and awhile Râmêêl allows some poor soul to see the demon he became when God took away his beauty and replaced it with a twisted horrible frame, leather like wings, and scales for skin. Râmêêl blames man for that also.

It was Râmêêl who fled to earth holding the length of chain taken from Semyaza's bindings. It was Râmêêl who had the human blacksmith fashion the chain into 13 Coins. It was Râmêêl who used one of the coins to deceive Judas and empower Hitler. Râmêêl hates this world, and can't wait to see it go to hell.

“YOU MUST

HELENA

HELENA

20 yrs old, and the only remaining True-Blood on Samuel's team. Helena was 4 when she was adopted by Samuel just a few days after her first "vision" - a burst of heat and light. Even at 4 yrs old, Helena understood it meant- her house was about to explode. Helena remembers her mother screaming, "Run Helena!!" She looked back and saw her mother firing shot after shot at whoever was attacking them. Helena was only a few meters from the house when the rocket grenade struck. The missile obliterated the house, killed Helena's mother and father, and threw Helena into the bushes where she lay unconscious- but out of sight of The Fallen who had attacked her family.

A couple of days later, Samuel took Helena into his family. Samuel's wife Mae Chen accepted the young girl with love as did Samuel's 2 yr old daughter, LiYun. Helena called Samuel's wife "Mom Mae" and everyone was happy. But it didn't last long.

Mae Chen was a normal human. The constant war with The Fallen was more than she could take. She had to leave. Samuel refused to allow her to take the girls with her. He told her he could protect them, and had to teach them to fight the monsters because that's what they were born to do. Leaving her daughters drove Mae Chen insane.

Helena was eight when Mom Mae left. She was devastated, but handled it better than LiYun. The girls missed their mother and cried themselves to sleep for months. When sleep wouldn't come, Helena worked out in secret (so she thought, but Samuel knew) with a sword far to heavy for her. Before bed she did 30min of push-ups, 30min of sit-ups and and 30min of pull-ups non-stop without a break in between. The Fallen had taken both Helena's mothers away from her. Helena vowed that when she got the chance, she would pull the eyes from the thirteen demons with her bare hands.

Before the Revealing, Helena had no control over the visions. The flashes of future came without warning, and she often could not decipher them. For two years she trained to push pain aside to prepare for the Revealing. She survived and is now a "Seer", able sometimes predict The Fallen plans. If the Fallen ever found out about her, they'd unleash Hell to kill her.

SENATOR GRAHAM

Early 50's, thinks he's 30, wishes he was 20. Worst public servant ever to hold office, but knows how to get elected (make the opponent look much worse than you, promise everything, and blame everyone else when you don't deliver). Graham is in politics because he doesn't want to work for a living. Most underhanded, backstabbing, dirty, lying, cheating, stealing politician that ever lived- and those are his good qualities. A handsome man and well dressed, Graham won his first election because he looked the part. He has a charming smile and looks you in the eye with a heartfelt smile as he lies to you. People love that motherfucker.

Graham is married to a woman who knows her role – smile in pictures with Graham, have two kids, collect a big monthly check and keep her mouth shut. She knows Graham prefers sex with black hookers. They know how to keep secrets. Particularly one Dominique- "Neek" for short. Publicly, Graham is a racist- gets more votes that way. Graham once pretended to slip and call one of the Black Congressmen, "nigger." He smiled his way through a fake apology, while donations to his re-election campaign quadrupled.

Graham knows that prostitutes don't mind him being 30 pounds over-weight and out of shape. He told an aide, "Tax payers don't pay me to exercise." Apparently, they pay him to argue the cause of whoever gives him the most money. His vote is always for sale, and he doesn't try to hide it. Graham doesn't spend money wisely, but he steals it exceptionally- Legally. Graham knows that political power brings financial windfall. His greed makes him the perfect pawn for The Fallen.
